Bricks Bring It Home From The Dome

The Brickies won their 68th straight home game November 20 with the slaughter of the Fort Wayne Generals, 42-3, for semi-state honors.

In less than four minutes into the game, Hobart scored on Wayne's kickoff with a 20-yard run by Senior Chris Drobac. With 4:43 left in the first quarter, Wayne recovered a fumble by Senior Jeff Ford and proceeded to obtain three points on a field goal.

Wayne attempted a second field goal at the beginning of the second quarter, but failed thanks to a block from Senior Bryan Newcomb. Shortly after Wayne's misfortune, Senior Mike Golarz ran for a 12-yard touchdown. Misfortune also touched the Brickies when they attempted a field goal, but failed.

The next two touchdowns were by Junior Dan Zanolla who ran for a total of thirty yards. Drobac also had two touchdowns with 19 carries for 109 yards, while Golarz also scored two touchdowns with 13 carries for 107 yards.

Hobart's dream came true for everyone Saturday, November 28 with the AAAA state championship win over the Jasper Wildcats, 31-0. It was the sixth try for the Brickies who had been down to the state finals in 1979, 1980, 1982, 1984, and 1985.

Hobart scored early in the game with an 85-yard run by Zanolla. Senior John Batisatas kicked the extra point, and he also scored a field goal with 3:53 left in the second quarter.

On a punt return, Senior Scott Roper ran 59 yards for a touchdown and the score was 17-0 at the half.

The Brickies upped the score to 24-0 in the third quarter with a third touchdown by Golarz. Golarz also received the Phil Eskew Mental Attitude Award after the championship game. This is the fourth time in six downstate appearances that a Hobart player has achieved this honor. With 2:59 left in the game, Junior Dave Richa threw a 47-yard touchdown pass to Drobac, which resulted in the first shutout of a Jasper team in over five years and the first state championship for the Brickies. — Melissa Cochran

Students Take Part in Spirit Week

Football homecoming began the Monday before the game with a spirit week, which was sponsored by the Booster Club. In order to show their school spirit students dressed as Cowboys and Indians on Monday, the costume of their choice on Tuesday, jerseys on Wednesday, Thursday was 50s day, and Friday was purple and gold day.

During the 7th hour on Friday, there was a pep session to introduce the candidates for homecoming queen and to cheer on the Brickie team. Also, it was announced that Senior Chris Drobac was voted Mr. Football.

Senior Sue Shudick was chosen as homecoming queen, and the court included Junior Beth Kozyra, Sophomore Sue Thyen, and Freshman Rhonda Meacham.

The Brickies beat Michigan City Rogers, 35-6, on October 16. Drobac lived up to the title given to him when he rushed for 122 yards and two touchdowns, and caught a 25-yard scoring pass.

The Booster Club sponsored a homecoming dance on Saturday, October 17. The dance was from 7 to 11 p.m. in the cafeteria, and the cost was $2.

Student Council sponsored the election of the basketball homecoming king and queen. The election of the queen involved candidates from all grades. However, according to Mayor Harry Langbehn, only senior boys were on the ballot "due to lack of participation."

Plans for homecoming included many activities. The Booster Club sponsored Spirit Week, February 1 to 5. Students displayed their spirit by wearing camouflage on Monday, a Hobart jersey on Tuesday, sweats on Wednesday, clothing that was inside out and backwards on Thursday, and purple and gold on Friday.

Also, there was a pep session during the 7th hour on Friday. At the pep session, Senior Todd Elliot was named Mr. Basketball.

Seniors Janet Kostromin and Alan Young were named Basketball Homecoming queen and king. This year was the first year for a king to be named.

The basketball team lost its homecoming game to Andean, 66-65. Juniors Erik Grant and Troy Mercer led the Brickie effort. Grant had 21 points and eight rebounds, while Mercer contributed 13 points and six rebounds.

NCA Visits HHS

Twenty-one members of the North Central Association of Schools and Colleges (NCA) observed HHS from Tuesday, November 3 to Friday, November 6. The faculty prepared for their visit the previous year during the half days off from classes.

The visiting group was made up of teachers, superintendents, principals, university professors, counselors, and librarians from throughout the state who had volunteered for the program. Their main purpose was to help evaluate and study HHS.

Besides observing students and staff, the group studied the community, extra-curricular activities, teaching methods, and school facilities. They also spoke to many students and faculty members at random.

The NCA released its evaluation of HHS, which included twenty recommendations and commendations. Taken directly from the report, the recommendations included:

1. The financial problems must be resolved as quickly as possible.
2. Staff morale must be improved through better communication at all levels — faculty — building administrators and central office staff.
3. The media center budget must be reinstated to preserve the book collection.

4. Curriculum articulation must be improved through meetings of faculty from the high school and middle school.

5. The role of the department chairperson should be evaluated so as to get more leadership in curriculum development.

6. Long range planning is needed for the replacement of equipment.

7. Departments must know their budgets so as to purchase resources more effectively.

8. Faculty should review course syllabi and update them where necessary.

9. Disciplinary policies should be reviewed by faculty and administrators. Consistency in implementation of the policy and administrative support at all levels is imperative.

10. Advisory committee should be formed for all vocations.

Major comments from the report included:

1. The school has a very concerned administration and central office staff.
2. Students are courteous, and concerned about learning.
3. The school has many good features.
4. The curriculum is well planned.

needs of most students.

5. There are many good elective programs. Foreign language has very good enrollments.

6. The counseling program is effective even though the student ratio is high.

7. The media center is spacious and attractive with good leadership from the librarian.

8. Good teaching methods are evident in most classrooms.

9. The gifted and talented program is a good effort to meet the needs of students with high academic ability.

10. The interschool program for football is to be commended as it contends for the state championship in Indiana.

Principal Richard S. Barack

Principal, Athletic Director Resign

Principal Richard Barack and Mr. Lloyd Ahlbrand, athletic director, submitted their resignations effective June 30, 1988.

Although no comments were made by the school board about the resignations, the board did state that Mr. Ahlbrand had expressed his desire to return to teaching.

Before coming to HHS as an assistant principal, Mr. Barack held a variety of positions including teaching at New Rochelle, Highland, and Gary. He was an administrator in the Gary Public Schools. He was also a commissioner on the State Board of Education for six years. He has served as an NCA chairperson for 18 years, and was an adjunct professor at Valparaiso University and Indiana University Northwest.

Mr. Barack commented on his seven years at HHS saying, "I very much enjoyed serving the students, teachers, and parents of the Hobart community."

Leach Promoted to Dean of Students

On March 14, Mr. Jack Leach, English Department Chairman, became Dean of Students. His primary responsibilities include student discipline and attendance. He also supervised school dances.

The position of Dean came about when teachers and administrators complained they needed help with student discipline. According to Superintendent Raymond Golarz, when Mr. Tony Rose was cut as assistant principal, "no one was really handling the problems."

Mr. Leach, worked in the administrative internship program during the first semester and was the only teacher in the school qualified for this position. As Dean, Mr. Leach was able to supervise students and not teachers.

Dr. Golarz commented on the new position, "It is a position we need. Whether we will need it again next year, I don't know. For the 1988-89 school year there will be two assistant principals and an assistant principal/athletic director," said Golarz.

Mrs. Shelly Peters, a licensed English teacher, had a temporary substitute contract to replace Mr. Leach as English teacher. According to Dr. Golarz, "Mrs. Peters is a fine teacher."

Commenting on his position as Dean of Students, Mr. Leach said, "I think it is important that we keep a positive attitude in the school. There are rules in the school handbook that have been devised by students, teachers, and parents. They are there to help insure a school where it is possible for everyone to experience academic and social success in a pleasant, but orderly atmosphere. It is part of my job to enforce those rules. I will make every attempt to be fair and consistent concerning discipline. I am still an educator, and concerned about students progress and growth."

Mr. Leach also stated that he would be continuing his education in order to complete his education specialist program at Purdue University in Lafayette. He also said the response to his new position was positive and encouraging.

Concerning Mrs. Peters taking over Mr. Leach's classes, he said, "Every effort has been and will be made to make sure that there are no gaps in any students education." To prevent this, Mr. Leach had daily conferences with Mrs. Peters to help make the students transition from one teacher to another smooth. — Anita Fryborg & Leslie Wasson

Study Hall at HHS

Study hall was brought back to HHS. The class was previously offered at the present middle school location, but there had not been a study hall at HHS since the high school was moved to its present location in 1958.

The class was for those students who needed a more structured study time and any student who was assigned to in school suspension. Also, any freshman or sophomore that failed a class the previous year was assigned to study hall.

The class was supervised by Mr. Howard Popp and Ms. Dawn Reece.

Like other classes, study hall had many rules and regulations. Students had to have school related study materials daily. There was no talking, sleeping, or putting heads on desks. The students were to stay in their seats and be there when the bell rang. In addition, they were not excused to go to their lockers. There was no throwing things and no vandalism to chairs or desks. Lastly, students were not allowed to have sunglasses, radios, newspapers, walkmans, food, candy, gum, etc. — Melissa Cochran

Gov. Orr Visits

Governor Robert Orr visited HHS on October 19. Attending the program with the governor was Susan H. Talbot, his special assistant for education.

The governor talked to a group of teachers, parents, and students about his A Plus program. The basic fundamentals of the program included the Mentor/Intern program which was set up to aid new teachers, ISTEP competency tests, and the At Risk program. All snow days must be made up and there were five days added to the school year. These changes were begun during the '88-'89 school year.

While teachers may have understood the Governor when he explained his program, many parents and students alike felt that he was unclear, and he did not have a full grasp on education today.

Governor Orr said that he hoped to talk to 100,000 teachers about his program during 1988. — Anita Fryborg & Leslie Wasson

Theater Class Performs Comedy

The theater class performed "Just for Kicks," a comedy by P. M. Clepper, November 4 and 5 in the auditorium.

The play was about a girl who joined the high school football team. The nightmare of women's lib and new regulation led to a comic situation in which a female English teacher was made coach and a girl athlete became the team's star kicker.

However, when a school had never won a football game, it can be forgiven for trying anything to gain a gridiron victory. The principal came up with a devilish scheme. How could his team be faulted for its losses if the coach is a woman? So, he appointed the English teacher, Janet Talber. What he didn't realize was that Janet was not the type to be a token coach and she meant to win!

Like the principal, she had far-out methods that included making

Diane, a talented girl athlete, the star kicker. Diane was out for victories, but her conscience bothered her about the boy she replaced. This play offered a wide range of comedy from highly sophisticated verbal humor to slapstick.

Mr. Tomlin, the assistant principal, is played by Junior Rob Mills.

1988 Jr. Miss Cancelled

When Jaycee President Rick Banks was contacted about the rumored cancellation of the 1988 Junior Miss Pageant that was scheduled for November 22, Mr. Banks promised an explanation in the next issue of the Hobart Gazette.

What was in the next issue of the Gazette? One paragraph which cited the lack of communication and participation as the reasons for cancellation of the pageant. Mr. Banks didn't go into any details.

The Jaycees have been doing the pageant for well over a decade now. When interviewed, Mr. Banks said that other Jaycee programs interfered with the pageant planning. He said that he and other Jaycees were downstate for a week earlier last fall and the "time got away for me."

The pageant was a place where other factors, along with academics, were considered. It was also a chance for the senior girls to perform and receive some recognition for their talents. In addition, this pageant was the only opportunity some girls had to receive scholarships.

Another reason that was given for the cancellation was the renting of the HHS facilities. Mr. Banks said that renting the facilities in 1986 cost $388. This year he said the cost was from $600 to $800. However, Mrs. Patti Hicks said that the $388 charge was just to rent the auditorium. This did not include what the Jaycees paid for the custodians, which could have brought the cost up to over $600. Also, this year's auditorium charge is only $390, so there was not much of a difference in costs. Mrs. Hicks also said she suggested to the Jaycees that they schedule the dress rehearsal for Friday night instead of Saturday, so they could save the cost of custodians.

All Dances Cancelled

HHS students were stunned by an announcement October 2 made over the public address system concerning the cancellation of all dances sponsored by the Varsity H Club, Honor Society, and SADD, including the annual semi-formal dance.

The club's decision to cancel its dances was made by the sponsors Mr. Jerry Hicks, Mr. Tom Workman, Mrs. Jackie Rogers, Mr. M. Rhody, and Miss Roberta Hanley. The cancellation was in reaction to an incident at the homecoming dance October 17, at which two HHS students were fighting.

The reason for cancellation, according to Mrs. Rogers is, "We found the rules in the student handbook are not being followed." Mr. Hicks, who was on the committee to revise the handbook last year, agreed, saying that the committee had spent a lot of time revising the student handbook and now it is not being adhered to.

However, by the following Monday, October 26, Principal Richard Barack announced to the student body that there would be a semi-formal dance.

Mr. Barack said that he would sponsor the semi and he, along with his parents, will chaperone the dance. He added that he hoped the revenue from the dance would pay for the dance expenditures, but, if needed, he would use contributions.

The dance was on Saturday, December 5 from 7 to 10:30 p.m. in the cafeteria. The theme of the dance, submitted by Senior Beth Shaffer, was "A Night Like This."

Tickets were sold during lunch hours for $5 per person. If a student brought a student from another school or out of school, a permission slip had to be signed.

Music was provided by the "Music Men," and pictures were taken by Midstates Photography.

Later in the year sockhops were sponsored by FCA and Student Council. Permission for the dances was given by Mr. Barack, and an administrator was present throughout the entire dance. Also chaperones were the club sponsor and parents who had volunteered. — Mel Cochran

This was a familiar site to most people in Northwest Indiana. Many HHS students spent most of their summer, both days and nights, at the beach. Lake Michigan had much to offer, and whether they were swimming, waterskiing, or just socializing, students continually flocked to its shores.

The sun-filled days provided us with many memories and experiences, like when we woke up early in order to find that "perfect" spot on the beach. Remember the long bare-footed walks to the car over the blistering hot pavement? What about the Speedo clad "men" who timed their sand-spraying activities directly with your lotion applications? Could we ever forget the sinking feeling after finding the little pink parking tickets on our windshields at Shelby Beach?

Though we may have complained and objected, we knew we would be back the following summer to relive the experiences and persevere.
— Julie Coons

TRENDS

In the annual whirl of fashion, HHS students exhibited their versions of the "in" styles. The popularity of sweats, tattered jeans, and stretch pants faded away and was quickly replaced with ice-washed denim, mini shirts, scarves, and cropped tops. The potpourri of fabrics and colors wove a tapestry of excitement for both the students and teachers. For example, Mr. Scheiman opted for the relaxing, subdued look of earthtones, while many students projected a vibrant rainbow of colors. They evenly displayed the revived surged towards cottons and wool as well as the introduction of lycra and rayon.

Many students' hairstyles took on new heights. Males, for example, chose styles ranging from shaved heads and long permed hair. On the other hand, most females opted for long hair with short layered bangs.

The looks that students chose expressed their individuality and added character to the halls of HHS. — Julie Coons

HHS Displays the "P" Word to Raise Funds

As a result of the ban of candy sales announced at the beginning of the 1988 school year, the freshman and sophomore classes provided the students with their first pop machine. The machine was introduced in an attempt to make up for the losses caused by the candy sale ban and the profits were divided evenly between the two classes.

Students were only able to purchase the pop before and after school. The machine was not available during the lunch hours due to complaints from the lunching staff and state nutritional regulations.

Overall, the reaction of the students to the introduction of the pop machine was positive. This was evident by the long lines of thirsty kids waiting to buy a refreshing drink. Though the offices refused to provide change for the machine, a fair amount of profit was generated.

Whether or not the excitement of HHS having a pop machine will produce enough revenue to fund the various class sponsored activities in the years to come, it has fulfilled its present goal.

A student purchases a can of pop after school from the newly installed machine.

Kuchta Chosen as 1st Female Mayor

Former city clerk, Mrs. Margaret Kuchta, defeated Mr. Bob Malizzo in the mayoral election on November 3, 1987. Kuchta had held the position of city clerk for twelve years before becoming Hobart's first female mayor. She also served as president of the PTA and the president of the City-wide PTA.

Kuchta strongly supported an elected school board rather than an appointed board. She stated that the elected board would be more accountable and accessible to the people.

Kuchta felt that the positive aspects of HHS included its sports programs and strong academic curriculum, its music and art programs, and its genuine concern about the students (for example, the formation of the committee to study drug and alcohol).

Kuchta commented that the weaker points of Hobart and its schools were the financial situation and the fact that the school's public image was hurt by the circumstances surrounding the resignation of both the superintendent and assistant superintendent in 1986.

"A city the size of Hobart needs recreational facilities for its youth," Kuchta said. "These facilities would include organized sports, dances, and places where the young can just 'hang out,' talk, or work on projects."

Finally, she stressed the fact that she feels we must listen to our young people because they have many good ideas and the enthusiasm and energy to make those good ideas happen.

The '88 talent show, titled "What Do You Expect for $2?", was April 14 and 15 in the HHS auditorium. The masters of the ceremonies were Senior Michele Turchany and Juniors Mary Orosz and Rob Mills.

One of the highlights of the show was Sophomore Harvey Dickson's portrayal of Oscar, a nerd in one of the blackouts. Along with the traditional blackouts there were also numerous dances done. In addition to this, songs were sung, two bands performed, and two piano solos were played.

Janet and Paul Reign

Following tradition, the Junior class sponsored the 1988 prom. The theme was "The Best of Times," and approximately 300 students attended. The prom was hosted at St. Sava Serbian Hall on Saturday, April 23 from 8:00-11:00 p.m. During the dance, the band "Connexion" played and for the after prom, which was hosted by the Hobart Jaycees, "Midwest Rollin' Sound" entertained the students.

Paul Flaharty and Janet Kostromin were crowned king and queen. There were also ten other senior couples who were nominated for king and queen. The only students who voted for these titles were those who attended the dance.

Some Seniors were unable to attend the prom because the number of tickets sold was limited. As a result, many students were selling tickets to the highest bidder. Although there was a waiting list, few students on the list were allowed to purchase tickets.

The special guest was State Representative Ralph Ayres who spoke encouraging words to the seniors. Valedictorian Julie Brandenburg and Salutatorian Derek Imboden gave their speeches. The seniors were presented with their diplomas and the choir sang the Alma Mater. Then Julie Coons gave the benediction and the alumni marched off the stage and into their homerooms where they received their diplomas.

Something for Everyone

Activities keep funds up

What an exciting year for these clubs! With each football victory, the Booster Club and the Cheerleaders were kept busy. Homecoming was celebrated in the traditional way by decorating the players lockers and painting the school and downtown area; however, the playoff games required a bit more style. When the Booster Club wasn't thinking of new ways to get the crowd and team psyched up, they were selling helium balloons and raffle tickets and passing out good luck cards and "Hobart hankies." These activities helped to reach a new high in the treasury fund. Basketball season was spent decorating lockers and sending the players good luck cards. Balloons were sent to Senior Todd Elliot who was recuperating from heart surgery. The cheerleaders held their annual car washes and cheerleading clinics to help raise money for camp and new uniforms. They also performed dances to "Brass Monkey" and "Catch My Fall" for the homecoming pep sessions. Although these clubs were kept busy throughout the year with different activities, they were always there to help cheer on all the Brickies.

Council sponsors bands battle

Whew! That's for Mrs. Storey, the Student Council sponsor. This year was a busy one for these hard working members. It was also a turning point for them because the outside involvement has improved. The popcorn deficit was eliminated; however, the ban of candy sales affected the fundraising. Some of the new ideas included in the councils curriculum were apples for the staff and popcorn sales. The highlight of the year was definitely the Battle of the Bands in which six area bands participated. This was a great fundraiser and was attended by many HHS students as well as students from other schools. Homecoming was also sponsored by Student Council and it was the first year for a Homecoming King.

daes to the teachers during the In-Service. A continental breakfast was also sponsored by them for Teacher Appreciation Day. The fundraisers for the club included the Semi and candy cane sales. One of the major accomplishments for this club was a donation to "Help Hobart Kids" and a Christmas toy drive.

Varsity H had the traditional year. They sponsored the food drive and Christmas baskets for the needy. Dances were also sponsored along with a tennis court dance on the Seniors' last day of school. Although it was switched to the gym, it was a success. The profits from the fundraisers went for scholarships. Spring Banquet

New Activities Sponsored

The Genesius Players had a busy year this year. The club sponsored the fall play, Children's Talent Show, Literary Night, and helped with outside organizations. These projects all helped to raise money for the scholarships that are awarded to outstanding club members. During the summer, three of the club members attended an honors program at Indiana State University to study theater. The combined efforts of the club helped maintain high morale and helped get work organized and accomplished.

The FCA members hosted their annual Pancake Breakfast this year. Along with this festive event, they also sponsored the Valentine sock hop. The profits from these projects helped raise money for scholarships, a Turkey Run trip, and summer camps. The FCA also sponsored Thanksgiving and Christmas Food Baskets for needy families.

The Writers Club tried something new this year. During the regular meetings, the members decided to produce a literary magazine. With combined efforts, they raised money to have the magazine commercially produced. The literary magazine was produced and sold to HHS students. Three of the four monthly meetings were used to read students' work and make critical comments.

Clubs enjoy field trips

Erwache! Does that sound familiar to all the German students out there? This year was the beginning of many new traditions in the foreign language clubs. Besides hosting the exchange students from the Christian Ernst Gymnasium, the German club also sold Brickie boxer shorts and T-shirts for the first time to raise money for scholarships.

The Spanish club celebrated several of the holidays in style. This included a pumpkin decorating contest for Halloween, a trip to the Christmas Around the World display at the Museum of Science and Industry during Christmastime.

heart-shaped cookie sales for Valentines Day, and chocolate bunny sales for Easter. Now that's the way to celebrate!

The French club members became connoisseurs when they visited Bon Femme Restaurant, tasted different foods at the International Christmas Pot-luck Dinner, and munched on their M&M's during candy sales!

Along with these festive events, trips to Chicago were taken, scholarships awarded, and memories made by all the clubs.

Clubs enjoy variety of activities

It was a busy year for SADD members. They sponsored a convocation featuring Tom McKean to help raise student awareness towards drug and alcohol abuse. SADD members also attended the HADD conference in Indianapolis and helped with the safe home projects. As a safety reminder for graduating students, SADD sponsored a wrecked car which was on display on the front lawn of the school. The Math club sponsored the annual softball game against NHS. They also sponsored the Aloha Seniors Dance and a car wash to help raise funds for scholarship money. The Home Ec. club suffered due to lack of participation; however, Junior Melissa Vaclavik painted fashion murals on the Home Ec. walls. The Investment club had the usual year. Many different stocks were bought and sold. The club motto throughout the year was patience = profit. Quill and Scroll also followed the traditional year and sold the annual Senior Wills and football mums. Pictures with the Easter Bunny and Santa Claus were taken by the Photography club. They also took pictures of students at the Aloha Seniors Dance and the Student Council dance.

Something Social

SENIORS

The 1988 Senior Class contained 290 students. As graduation grew closer, senioritis set in. When the school year ended, students prepared to enter the real world such as going on to college, the military, or looking for a permanent job.

Even though the senior float was disqualified from competition, many participated in the Homecoming activities. Sue Shudick was crowned Football Homecoming queen. The Basketball Homecoming had a new addition to its court; Alan Young was crowned King, while Janet Kostromin was crowned queen.

The pink carnation was the class flower, and french blue and silver were the class colors. The class motto was "Nothing is impossible to a willing heart."

HHS Tradition Continues

Left — Those seniors who were with the police department, like John Batistatos, were given instruction on the firing range.

Although there were not as many seniors who participated in Government Education Day the tradition continued to spark some senior involvement. As usual, the most popular choices were the fire and police departments because those students were able to take part in the annual fire drill. Customarily the mayor of HHS replaces the city mayor, and this year was no different. Mayor Harry Langbehn took over for Mayor Margaret Kuchta. Other choices for seniors included teaching at HMS or one of the elementary schools, and various city hall positions.

Senior Traditions Continue

Although the school annually posts a list of Senior privileges, many students felt that there were not enough of them. The following activities were included in the schedule: the Aloha Seniors Dance, Seniors were dismissed one minute early to go to lunch, and a dance was held on the tennis courts the last day of school. Beginning the week of May 23 the Seniors participated in their own spirit week. Monday was Hawaiian day, Tuesday was college jersey day, on Wednesday Seniors dressed as nerds, Thursday was slave day, and Friday the Seniors posed for their class picture. Slave day appeared to be the most popular of the events with many Seniors and underclassmen participating. Students took elaborate steps to label and dress their slaves. Most slaves wore large signs which said the grade they were in and that they were worthless, unintelligent servants.

The members of the class of 1989 not only spent time looking forward to their senior year but began making plans for after graduation. Having over $4,000 in their treasury helped to finance the 1988 prom "The Best of Times."

Mr. Workman's AP History class worked hard selling candy. The money that was raised was used towards the costs of the AP examination at the end of the year.

The class colors are green and white and the class flower is the American Beauty Rose. The class motto is "Tread not the well-worn path, but make your own."

Gloria Simpson was crowned the basketball homecoming princess and Beth Kozyra was crowned football princess.

Carrie Chelle was president, Frank Galvin was vice president, Jeni Vargo was secretary, and Aaron Immel was treasurer.

Freshmen

The members of the freshman class of 1991 entered high school with many expectations for the next four years. It was obvious from the beginning that many wanted to make a name for themselves, and they wouldn't be overshadowed by the upper-classmen.

The freshman class will be sharing the profits of the Pepsi machine with the sophomore class because of the ban on candy sales.

Brian Butler was president, Erika Parson was vice president, Rhonda Meachum was secretary, and Martha Burns was treasurer. The class colors are blue and gold, their flower is the red rose, and their class motto is "Build for character, not for fame."

Basketball homecoming princess was Bethany Wimmer and football princess was Rhonda Meacham. The freshman homecoming float came in first place with the theme of "Rock the Raiders."

Communication class goes Hollywood

Basic Vocational Communications was introduced to the department. The class was educational and very entertaining. Throughout the many hours of taping and editing both TV production classes produced a music video project for the state Media Fair. The HTV class went "Hollywood" with the weekly "Brickyard Basketball", produced for U.S. Cable channel 49. The classes were generally smaller which gave Mr. Dave Barancyk more time for individual attention for the students. The famous quote yelled throughout the class was "dead men don't wear plaid!". Memories and Ho-Hi Life staffs were unusually small this year. Editor of Ho-Hi, Melissa Cochran stated,

"It was hard to meet the deadlines every month, with only three people on the staff. But we pulled it off." The yearbook staff contained many graduating seniors. Co-Club editor, Jenny Balog said, "The end of the year was vicious because I spent the whole time writing copy and captions. I can wait to get out and hit the beach."

Smashed melons squirted blood highlights night

The English department sponsored the Literary Night for the second time. After skipping a year, the Literary Night returned with a bang. Fifteen exciting acts and 66 students participated on and off the stage. Bits of comic relief showed through when fake blood squirted out during the Oedipus act and melons were smashed during MacBeth scenes. Mr. Leach taught senior novel and composition for the first time. The composition classes did term papers as part of the curriculum. A composition class was also new for Mrs. Coons.

"Throughout the halls bonjour, Hola, and Guten Tag" are heard from students taking foreign languages. The Spanish Foreign language department had many exciting activities. The past two years Hobart High Schools has had honored spanish students accepted into the I.U. Honors Program. Last summer Senior Julie Brandenburg studied in Mexico for seven weeks. This summer, Michelle Richards, Stacy Waldron and Mary O'Malley will be traveling to San Luis Potosi. The Spanish Club sponsored fund raisers and took several trips to nearby restaurants and shopping malls. The French Club also had an exciting year. Dru Peddicord visited France for one month in the summer. She said it was a very exciting and memorable experience. The German classes took part in many activities; for example, selling T-shirts, boxer shorts and pizzas. Many members of the German class took part in the exchange program during the summer of '87.

Henderlong returns as band director

"Directing the marching band in the Hoosier Dome during my senior year was a dream come true for me. I had wanted to be a Drum Major since my freshman year," stated Tammy DeVault. The band director, Mr. Art Henderlong, returned to the high school. He taught for half at the high school and half at the middle school. The band participated in various concerts in Portage and Boone Groove. They also traveled to Indianapolis to perform at the Hoosier Dome and at Union Station. On May 19 Band students were presented awards for their dedication and participation in the band program at the Annual Awards Concert. The two top senior awards were presented to Dink Frey and Jeri Robinson. Senior Jeri Robinson earned the John Philip Sousa award. It is one of our nations highest awards and the students of the band voted for the recipient. The Arion Award was presented to Senior Dink Frey. The recipient of this award is registered with the Arion National Foundation which is then disseminated to colleges and universities for scholarship offers. Several of the students received partial scholarships. The money went towards a band camp which was attended by: Terry Burns, Krista Davenport, Jon Decausemaker, and Harvey Dickson. Freshman Stephanie Merke received a special certificate for outstanding contributions, leadership, and service to the instrumental program. The Outstanding Musicianship Awards were presented to Sophomore David Dilthe and Junior Laurie Wielgus.

Former Choir teacher returns

Former choir teacher, Mr. Dean Wolff, was rehired again to teach the girls' ensemble and concert choir after new teacher, Mrs. June Hand was transferred out of high school. The girls' ensemble sang for the Hobart Rotary Club, the Mayor's Prayer Breakfast and the Senior Citizens at the YMCA. The ble practiced on the average of once a week. The Concert Choir sang for a Christmas party at the Administration Building. Mr. Wolff said both choirs were small and there was need for more males. The choir was one of twenty-two schools participating in the regional solo and ensemble contest at Crown Point High School. First place in division one were sopranos Kelly Caldwell and Shawna Owen, and Alto Michelle Richards. The girls' trio and twelve-voice girls' ensemble also placed first. Rob McGuire had a perfect score on the piano. Caldwell, Richards and Owens qualified for state which Feb. 20.

Bumper stickers and newspapers adorn walls of U.S. history classes

In the U.S. history classes students created bumper stickers. They also wrote a newspaper involving the history of the U.S. The consumer economics classes worked hard on various reports. They developed alternative energy sources which showed that the students cared about their outside environment. Students also reported on an endangered animal. Because of large class sizes, Mr. Blink was forced to assign less homework. Freshman social science students made inventions for productions in the future. The students developed a sense of trading as they played a stock market simulation game. Other complaints about the cutbacks were the rooms were not as clean nor were the supplies readily available. Field trips were not approved throughout the year.

New opportunities inspire art students

The fine arts and crafts department offered a good variety of opportunities for students to explore their creative interests. Courses were offered in drawing, painting, commercial art, ceramics, leathercraft, and Gifted and Talented art.

The Gifted and Talented program got off to a flying start with three school murals and a complete choir for the downtown Christmas display.

All students were encouraged to participate in the Purdue Cal and Hobart Tri Kappa Art Shows. At Purdue Calumet Junior Joe Luna received a second place for his ceramic vase, and Junior Steve Garland received Honorable Mention for his painted sculpture of a large mouth bass. The Tri Kappa Art Show, which was held in May had 56 Hobart students participating. Best of Show went to Steve Garland. For painting first and third places were awarded to Mike Pilbea. Second place was Brandon Casiano. In Drawing Garland took first place. Second place was Jenny Bellar and third place was Brandon Casiano. In Ceramics Casting Scott Rado took a first followed by Jody Crum taking second and Anne Stack taking third. In Commercial Art Beth Shafer took first and second place while Harvey Dickson took third. In Leathercraft first place went to Eric Grant second Donna Dickson and third Natalie Goocher. In Ceramics Hand-building first went to Joe Luna second Mary Arambula and third Joe Rodriguez.

"This has been a great year for all and I will miss the seniors as always, but just as in any program, I'm looking forward to the younger students who will come into the program and continue to enrich and beautify their own lives, school, and community," concluded Mr. Dale Marcus.

Classes make figures, drawings

The geometry class of Mrs. Storey made 3-Dimensional figures from construction paper. Algebra and general math classes made straight line drawings for extra credit. The cut-back of paper affected this class. This limits students so they cannot write on worksheets. Lack of scissors also was a problem for class participation. The size of the general math classes were said to be too large. Mrs. Storey feels they should be considered basic. She cannot get to each student for the individual help they need. Mr. Skafish, who also teaches math feels the shorter periods takes away from the amount of work he can cover.

Metal classes help decorate downtown Hobart

Advanced metal students used their skills for Christmas lights in downtown Hobart. Also, senior Brian Newcomb made starting blocks for the track team. Metal classes made individual projects such as a band stand, basketball hoops, and a weight lifting bench. Freshman Jason the Prince said, "We made individual projects that were used for our homes. The class was interesting but kind of unusual."

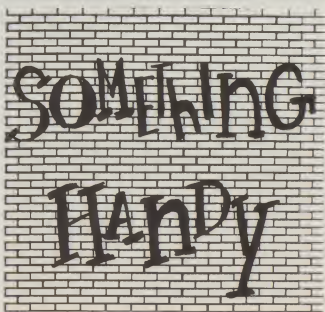

In the woods classes students made various projects. Sophomore Michelle Matthews stated, "I made a rocking horse and table for my niece. If it wasn't for Mr. Zoladz, I never would have finished." Mrs. Lawrence's food classes made various dishes throughout the year. One of the dishes they learned how to make was different types of breads. The kinds of desserts they made were: chocolate chip, snickerdoodle, and peanut butter cookies. Also, they made drop brownies and peanut brittle.

Students learned about the four food groups, techniques of cooking, and how to use kitchen utensils. The family living class performed a mock marriage ceremony. Senior Joe Messina and Junior Jennifer Luedtke were pronounced man and wife by Senior Jay Lee. The wedding and reception were held in the school library.

New activities add pizzaz to physical ed. classes

The health classes accomplished several reports as part of the regular class curriculum. Alcohol education classes decorated the halls with educational posters. They warned of problems caused by drinking and driving. Three scrapbooks were made on alcohol, tobacco, and drugs from newspaper clippings. New activities added excitement to the P.E. classes. They were ultimate frisbee and synchronized swimming. Other new programs added were emphasized fitness levels, the incorporated jump rope program, and they took their percentage of body fat. The classes were so large that it limited the class offerings. Tennis, golf and badminton units were taken out because of this problem.

Marketing class attends contest in Rennselaer

Eighty students from Mr. Graham's marketing class attended a marketing contest in Rennselaer. Each student also picked a fellow student to serve as an eye doctor and treated and sold contact lenses to other students. Mr. Graham also taught personal typing. The cutbacks that affected this class were machine parts for typewriters. The students were forced to share typewriters and this caused classtime to be wasted. Mr. Graham also had a super bowl alphabet typing contest. The prize was a six-pack of pop. Mr. McGuire taught Accounting I-II, Computer Accounting and Business Math I-II was new for him. The affects of cutbacks in his accounting class was that he did not have all the supplies needed and he had to eliminate some practice sets. Mrs. Harder was the office procedures teacher. In her office procedures class she had various business college speakers attend and discuss grooming expertise. The continuous repair of broken equipment in the word processing class hindered progress greatly. Mrs. Harder could not purchase practice sets for other classes.

Rooms not clean, supplies not as available and field trips not approved were major cutbacks in the class. Junior G/

T class was taught by Mrs. Shinovich. They had many speakers who came in and talked about third world countries. One of the speakers was Julie Brandenburg who talked about Mexico. Miss Schrader talked about Africa and Egypt. Marci Hallas discussed Indonesia. They also did a section on death and dying taking a field trip to Burns Funeral Home. Senior G/T class, taught by Mrs. Cory, studied education. They did a section on Japan. Also religion and philosophy were studied. For the first time the senior G/T class traveled to different schools for their education section. They compared and contrasted surrounding schools.

Brickies take state title; Golarz wins Attitude Award

The Hobart Brickie football team's winning streak lead to the Hooiser Dome with a 31-0 victory over the Jasper Wildcats thanks to the superior training of Head Coach Don Howell and his assistants, Mr. Steve Balash, Mr. Craig Buford, Mr. Jerry Hicks, Mr. Tom Kerr and Mr. Donald Rodgers.

The highlight of the season was the 7-3 triumph over Munster after the Mustangs defeated the Brickies in overtime at Regionals last year. According to Coach Howell, a combination of hard work by the players and assistants, and an understanding wife contributed to the Brickies 14-0 season.

Seniors Chris Drobac, Jeff Ford, Mike Golarz, Jack Hall, Jason Mergl, and Mark Pastoret were team captains. Golarz was awarded the Phil Eskew Mental Attitude Award. This is the fourth time Hobart has received this honor. Drobac was named Most Valuable Player on the offensive side of the team and Mergl on the defense. The Gary Post, Hammond Times, Indiana Federal Coaching Association and the District One Indiana Duneland Conference Association named Howell as coach of the year. He has been head coach for the past 22 years and this was his best ever. "The State Championship was won for all the Brickies past, present, and future, for everyone," said Coach Howell.

The Junior Varsity football team ended with an 8-0 record. "The boys played well all season. We were unscored on the first four games," commented Mr. Craig Buford who has been coaching for 11 years. Mr. Steve Balash is his assistant. Coach Buford added we outscored our opponents 203-37. The boys played well all season."

Under the coaching of Mr. Bill Rich, the freshmen football team scored their best team record in the past four years. Placing second in Duneland Conference, the was 6-2.

The highlight of the season was the win over LaPorte. That was the first time in seven years that a Hobart freshman football team has beaten the Slickers.

Captains of the team were Bruce Burton, Josh Manfred and Ryan Turley. Burton was named Most Valuable Player offensive lineman while Turley and Manfred were MVP offensive backs. Defensive lineman Berney Cooper and defensive back Keith Slicker were also named Most Valuable Players.

Young teams struggle,
but look for strong future

The girls team ended their season with a 2-10 record. Coach Don Hancock said that the girls performance at the Lowell Invite highlighted the season. This included a fourth place finish out of eight teams and an eighth place individual performance by Sophomore Dawn Shearer. This allowed the Lady Brickies to come from behind in several games and to post impressive wins on others. Another major highlight of the season was that the team advanced to the semi-final round of the Merrillville Sectional for the first time since 1983.

With a 10-12 record the varsity basketball team did their best this season considering the set backs. Senior Jeff Ford cut the season short with a knee injury after the Hammond Morton game, and Senior Todd Elliott stopped playing after the Calumet game because of a heart condition.

The highlights of the season were the wins over Portage and Michigan City Rogers. Mr. Jeff Loveless has coached boys' basketball for nine years, but this was his first year as head coach. Mr. Jim Herrick and Mr. Bob Clifford were his assistants. Elliott made the All-Conference team, and Senior Phil Gilyan was awarded the Bob Hunt Mental Attitude Award. Junior Troy Mercer was the top defensive player and the top scorer was Senior Paul Flaharty. Elliott, who was the team captain, was named Mr. Basketball at Homecoming. Coach Loveless summed up the season by commenting, "The team worked hard to overcome these adversities and ended up with a 10-12 record."

The Junior Varsity team had an 9-11 record with the coaching of Mr. Robert Glover. This was his first year at Hobart and he really enjoyed the opportunity to come back and instill some pride in the basketball program.

The highlight of the season was winning three of the last five games which included wins against Chesterton, Calumet and Griffith. Although the team had no designated captains, Sophomores Joe Casco, Steve Vode and Scott Miller were leaders on the floor with their intensity and determination during practice. The addition of the three point shot had a great impact on the team. Sophomore Ryan Kramer led the team in scoring with a 14 point average. Sophomore Tom Manjerrez led in rebounding with seven points per game. Coach Glover commented, "Players demonstrated a willingness to work hard in practice and more importantly to dedicate themselves in the off-season to becoming the best basketball players they can become. The overall program made significant progress this year and the results will be seen in the next years to come."

The highlight of the season was coming from behind in the wins over Griffith and River Forest, and the win against Chesterton in overtime. Freshman Ryan Turley was the lead scorer and free throw shooter. Freshman Pat Konja was the leading rebounder with 81 points. "Although the kids didn't experience a winning season, they played hard and always showed a great attitude," said Coach Ford.

BASEBALL

Brickies bat to Duneland title

The Varsity Baseball Team had its best season ever with a 25-6 record and a Duneland Conference Championship. This year the team broke or tied eight records, including both team and individual scores.

Mr. Dwight Mathis has been head coach for 13 years, but has had 18 years total experience. Mr. James Herrick and Mr. Dave Schafer are his assistants.

Junior Dan Zanolla was named as the Most Valuable Player, and he and Junior Troy Mercer were the Most Valuable Pitchers. The Mental Attitude Award went to Junior Jim Herrick.

The highlight of the season was the two time defeat against LaPorte for the first time since 1964.

The Junior Varsity Baseball

Team's season ended with a 12-0 record.

The highlights of the season were when Sophomore Chad Wright had a no hit game against River Forest and Sophomore Jerry Bysiek's part in beating LaPorte.

This is Mr. Dave Schafer's first year coaching Hobart, although he has been coaching five years over all.

"It started off rough, but this is the first time I've been in a high school situation," said Coach Schafer. He also said that it was a good year and the team learned to play "as a team, not as individuals."

GYMNASTICS

Team performances improve; Goocher qualifies for Regionals

The girls gymnastics team ended their season with a 3-7 record and a third place finish at Sectionals. Highlighting the season was Senior Natalie Goocher qualifying for Regionals in the bar and vault competitions. Junior Julie Roskowski said, "Even though our record doesn't show it, we definitely had a winning season because every one worked hard and im-

Far right — Completing her routine in the vault competition is Senior Natalie Goocher who also qualified for Regionals in this event.

Right — Junior Julie Roskowski flips over the vault.

ROBERT H. BORK

STOCK MARKET CRASH: The Dow Jones industrial stock average dropped 508 points, the largest in history, on Monday, October 19. It stripped $500 billion from the market value of U.S. securities.

GARY HART: Democratic presidential candidate Gary Hart was forced to drop his bid for the presidency after it was reported that he was romantically involved with Donna Rice. He later re-entered the race.

JIM AND TAMMY FAYE BAKKER: The well-known TV evangelists said farewell to the PTL ministry. Jim Bakker resigned after confessing to a sexual encounter with a young woman. Tammy Bakker bowed out to undergo treatment for drug dependency.

ROBERT H. BORK: The Senate rejected President Reagan's nomination to the Supreme Court by a 58-42 vote, which ended a long contentious debate over the judge's record.

WELCOME HOME

TOP ENTERTAINER

WELCOME HOME: President and Nancy Reagan wave to well-wishers from the South Portico of the White House. Reagan escorted his wife back to the White House from the Bethesda Naval Hospital where she underwent breast cancer surgery. Later in the year, she was honored for her anti-drug campaign. The program's goal was to create a "Drug-Free America".

WORLD SERIES CHAMPS: Kirby Puckett and Jeff Reardon of the Minnesota Twins celebrate their World Series victory over the St. Louis Cardinals. The Twins won the seventh and final game of the series 4-2.

TOP ENTERTAINER: Whitney Houston received honors as the top female performer. Bon Jovi and U2 were two of the top rock bands, while Randy Travis became an award winning sensation on the country music scene.

Something Incredible!

Well, this is it. Now that the year is over, all of our hard work is visible. Everything seemed to be a little chaotic near the end, but, Mrs. Lambeth, exactly what would you do if you didn't have to spend half your summer in the teacher's lounge? I think we all realize that each time we spent an entire hour selling that one ad or going on a simple errand that we could have been thinking (at least) about what needed to be done. Every one of us knows when the book has to be finished but working frantically at the end seems to have evolved into, shall we say, "tradition"?

Linda, you are in charge. I wish you lots of luck, I know you'll do a great job. Also, take it easy on Mr. Henning (Bob). I think I gave both he and Mrs. Lambeth gray hair.

I would like to thank my staff for the time and effort they put forth. I would also like to thank Miss Mumaugh for the help she gave me (I bet you thought I forgot?). I also want to give special thanks to Mr. Henning, the yearbook representative, who answered numerous questions at any time, day or night. Finally, I want to thank Mrs. Lambeth who gave me the chance to be in control. I know that this yearbook isn't perfect, but, to me, it's the best ever, and it wouldn't be possible without your patience. I will miss you all.
